
John Johnson receives prestigious award at expo

ATLANTA – The M&A Sources announced it conferred John C. Johnson of Vinita its prestigious Fellow of the M&A Source Award during its Educational Conference and Middle Market Expo in Austin, Texas, on Nov. 17.

The M&A Sources is the world's largest international organization of experienced, dedicated merger and acquisition intermediaries representing the middle market. Fellowship is a lifetime award that is one of the highest honors bestowed by the M&A Source. The Fellow Award recognizes and honors M&A Source members who have made sustained and significant contributions to the association. Johnson's award demonstrates exemplary commitment and experience as a professional M&A intermediary.

Since 1991, the M&A Source has addressed professional issues of merger and acquisition specialists. The organization has over 300 co-operating intermediaries active in middle-market transitions across the U.S., Mexico, Europe and other international locations. It provides education, networking, conferences, member tools, peer-to-peer roundtables, deal making expos and other support, all specific to M&A specialists.

Johnson is founder and principal of Bluestem Resources Group, LLC, which operates under trade names of BluestemUSA, IBG Business, and The Oil and Gas Advisor. He has devoted his professional career to assisting buyers and sellers of businesses. He is seasoned in business sales and acquisitions of mid-market companies, bringing his clients over 25 years of professional experience.
